

I am VERY pleased with the Indiana law. I pay the telephone bill and it is my right to decide whom I wish to talk to - not some telemarketer or anyone else for that matter. I believe it also cuts down on fraud, most specifically with older citizens. I DO NOT want to go back to receiving phone calls all night long - I like my peace and quiet.